The Marketplace at Callingwood is a vibrant, community-oriented, outdoor shopping centre that is committed to providing the essentials for living and beyond. We are devoted to building and nurturing relationships with our neighbours and feel it is our business duty to give back to and support our community to ensure a bright and prosperous society.

The Marketplace at Callingwood is dedicated to its partnership with Archbishop Oscar Romero High School through monetary donations as well as offering an outlet for fundraising efforts. A sound education system full of opportunity and achievement in youth helps to ensure a strong, vibrant community.

With over 75 shops and services to choose from, the Marketplace at Callingwood has something for everyone including the largest outdoor Farmers' Market in Edmonton that occurs on Sundays and Wednesdays from May to October. We also have a number of ongoing family activities with entertainment for all ages throughout the year.

The Marketplace at Callingwood is located just south of Archbishop Oscar Romero High School on the corner of 69 Avenue and 178 Street. Please stop by shopping centre often or visit us online at www.callingwoodmarketplace.com for a complete list of shops and services, an overview of events and to take part in exciting contests and promotions.
